

For students under 18, parents are invited to follow their children's results by personal interviews with the trainer, through e-mails or visiting the private area on our intranet. All the information will be confidential and nobody else will be able to access your private area.

As well as this, this private area will be an interesting tool in our weekly work; where students will find extra didactic materials, activities and different kind of listening to continue practising at home.